Small ship cruising at its best

Combining the comfort and benefits of boutique-style cruising with the very best of cultural travel, Voyages to Antiquity offers an opportunity to explore the many wonders of the Eastern and Western Mediterranean, Northern France, Iceland, Ireland and the British Isles. New voyages added this year include sailings to the fjords of Norway, the Three Rivers in France and circumnavigating the British Isles.

The small ship, Aegean Odyssey is perfectly suited to the destination-rich itineraries while the inspiring lecture program connects you with the places you'll visit before you even step ashore. The size of Aegean Odyssey allows you to visit harbours other vessels cannot reach, meaning a broader range of destinations are on offer. Cruise the Gironde River and berth in the heart of Bordeaux, sail up the Guadalquivir River into the centre of Seville, and access the smaller Mediterranean ports and islands with ease.

Your onboard experience is a little different, too. Discover a friendly and congenial atmosphere that enables you to get to know your like-minded fellow travellers. Whether it's over dinner, in conversation about a lecture or on your designated shore excursion coach, friendships are easily formed. With just 350 onboard any one voyage, this ship combines an intimate atmosphere with generous public spaces. The relaxed dress code also means there is no need to dress up on our behalf, cutting down on the amount of luggage you need.

Voyages to Antiquity offers exceptional value for money by including the things that matter most. With included sightseeing tours, selected drinks with dinner and gratuities, there is very little else to add on once you've stepped onboard Aegean Odyssey. Grand Voyages even include free economy airfares from major cities in Australia! For a completely immersive and authentic cruise experience, Voyages to Antiquity cannot wait to welcome you onboard.
